

ID#	Digitized File Name	Donated By	Donation Date	Date of Writing	Title	Written By	Written for/for	Locations Mentioned	Handwritten or Typed	Descriptive Notes	Additional People Mentioned/Signatures	Accession Number	Date Indexed	Initials
000.1	D20.1 Thomas Talt Article	Unknown	Unknown	After 1850	Thomas Talt Blood Died At Age of 77 Years	Unclear	Newspaper	Philadelphia, West Orange, Bloomfield, Lane Branch	Typed	An obituary for Thomas Talt Bloom. It describes his former role of work, how he died, and family members, both living and dead. There are two notes attached. One reads "Eagle City Post, 'Local City Post', 1840". The other reads "1830 Bloomfield, C.O., Phila., Pa., 1840, 'Local City Post'". It is unclear which date is correct.	Thomas Talt Bloom, Daniel Ols Block, Francis H. Talt, William M. Swain, Walter H., Monroe D., G. Hilson Keen, Harry G. Gilles, Louis F. Schenck	N/A	1/14/2020	RC
000.2	D20.2 Assorted Newspaper Clippings; c. 1200-2 Assorted Newspaper Clippings; pt. 2, D20.2 Attached Envelope	Paul Hecceg, Jr.		May 82	Unclear	The Whakemen of Cape May, Toots Sacrificed to Be a Soldier	S. Gordon Smythe	Newsday	Typed	Assorted ripped newspaper clippings kept together in one plastic sheet. It's unclear how exactly the ripped newspaper clippings fit together. Attached is an envelope that reads "May 'Pewee' Pedersen".	S. Gordon Smythe, Jeremiah Bussis, Thomas Hand, Algeet Pyne, Elizabeth Carter, Raymond G. Nixon, David Touse, Mrs. Wiley, Mrs. H.L., Thomas El Townsend, William Christian, C.O. Letawa, L. E. Kaufman, Charles F. Sanders, Frank Carter, F.L. Peterson, Samuel Crowell, Clara D. Springer, Amy Anderson, Helen LaBar, Esther Oak, Anna Kutz, Christopher Leeming, Nathaniel Street, William Johnson, Arthur Cheson, Caesar Hoskins, John Richardson, Jonathan Colbourne, Joseph Housling, Dorothy Howell, Henry Stiles. Other names mentioned are partially missed off and cannot be made out fully.	#2 22.8	1/14/2020	RC
000.3	D20.3 In Memory of the Dead	Unknown	Unknown	Unclear	In Memory of The Dead	Charles Tomlin	Newspaper	Oak Creek, Cape May Court House	Typed	A cut newspaper clipping. In it, Charles Tomlin lists examples of old fortifications that have been damaged, removed, or destroyed. He is providing information about who these fortifications belonged to, when they died, and details about their life. On the back, there are various business card size advertisements.	Charles Tomlin, Daniel Norton, Esq., Capt. Geo. Norton, Rosanna Townsend, Thomas Douglas, Dr. John H. Reed, Deborah Hand, Deborah Townsend, William Comstock, H.S. Douglas, William [Douglas], Thomas [Douglas] Alexander	N/A	1/14/2020	RC
000.4	D20.4 Buried Gold Article	Unknown	Unknown	Unclear	Note Tells Where Kidd Buried Gold But N.J. Engineer Can't Find It	Frank Troughtill	Newspaper	Cape May, Ocean City, England, Philadelphia	Typed	A cut newspaper article. The article describes a note where Captain Kidd allegedly buried treasure. Morgan Hand is described as being in possession of the note and having looked for it, but could not find the treasure. The back has various advertisements, many of them cut in half due to the way the newspaper was cut.	Morgan Hand, Frank Troughtill, Captain Kidd, Elizabeth	N/A	1/14/2020	RC
000.5	D20.5 Yacht Launching Photo and Murder Article	Unknown	Unknown	June 11, 1899	Scenes at the Launching of the Yacht Columbia at Bristol, R.I. Christenbark Body Told of Murder, Molokau Used Crescent Paper	Unclear	Newspaper	Bristol, New York, New Jersey, Brooklyn, Coney Island	Typed	An image cut out of a newspaper. The image is of a yacht launching in Bristol, RI. On the back of this image, there is an article about a man who was found in the water, dismembered. Due to lack of head and limbs, identifying the body was difficult, although Volschneider thinks the body is his brother's. Some of the article is cut off due to how the image on the other side is cut. Another article included on the page is regarding another murder case, focusing on the murdered, Molokau. The third article on this page contains accusations from a pastor against a woman, though some of the details are cut due to where the newspaper is cut.	Volschneider, Henry A. Ken, Dr. Cordelia, Captain Reynolds, Martin Thom, Augusta Nock, William I. Kinney, Daniel N. Canabito, W.C. Rosset, Mr. Olsome, Robert B. Pollock, Barry, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Adams, Morris Herman, Bertha Melus, Rev. William R. Evans	N/A	1/14/2020	RC
000.6	D20.6 Porpoise Ground Affair	Unknown	Unknown	November 27, 1886	N/A	Unclear	The May Week Weekly Paper	Cape May	Handwritten	Transcription of text: "The May Week Weekly Paper, November 27th, 1886. Confirming the advertisement of the death of one of the Porpoise Fishing Company of Cape May to be sold New Jersey at Cape May". The back reads, "Porpoise Ground Affair".	N/A	2019.030.006	1/14/2020	RC
000.7	D20.7 Cape Raided in 1812 Article	Unknown	Unknown	Unclear	Cape Raided in 1812	Unclear	Newspaper	Tuckerton, Cape May	Typed	An article written about ongoing raids in Cape May by the British during the War of 1812. In retaliation, residents of Cape May kidnapped British sailors. They kept them upon their original vessel, the Lion. Eventually, another British vessel started to follow them. The kidnapped British sailors were told if they did not prevent the crew of the other vessel from coming on board, they would be shot. The second British vessel remained close to the Lion, and when they were close to shore, the Americans jumped, so they would not be captured themselves. The article is attached to a old envelope addressed to Charles E. Tomlin, Phil., Cape May County, Cape May Court House, NJ.	N/A	N/A	1/14/2020	RC
000.8	D20.8 Mechanic Exercises Article	Charles Smith Giff	Unknown	Originally written in 1703, unclear when paper created	From the Preface of Mechanick Exercises On the Doctrine of Musick Works	Joseph Moxon	Unclear	N/A	Typed	An excerpt of "The Preface of Mechanick Exercises Or the Doctrine of Handy-Work". Joseph Moxon discusses things like geometry, astronomy, perspective, music, navigation, and architecture, and how it impacts and is impacted by technology.	Joseph Moxon, King Charles	N/A	1/14/2020	RC