

Index	Digitized File Name	Donated By	Donation Date	Date of Writing	Title	Written By	Written to/For	Locations Mentioned	Handwritten or Typed	Descriptive Notes	Additional People Mentioned/ Signatures	Accession Number	Date Indexed	Initials
D34.1	D34.1 Cape May Common Pleas	Cecelia Hand Nelson	12-Dec-79	April 23, 1897	N/A	Morgan Hand	Upper Township Courts	Upper Township, Cape May Court House, Seaville, Petersburg, Middle Township	Typed	A record from Cape May Common Pleas. This specific record regards the matter of multiple individuals, including Theodore F. Shute, for a public road in Upper Township.	Theodore F. Shute, Morgan Hand, James M. E. Hilsenrath, Ellis H. Marshall, J.L. Marshall, Eugene Townsend, Alexander Corson, Townsend Gandy, Hollis P. Mickel, Learning Rice Jr., Anthony Steelman, Harry S. Douglass, Learning Rice Jr., Charles Wright, David D. Burch, David E. Goff.	79.124.9	5/1/2026	RUC
D34.2	D34.2 John D. Ludlam	Unknown	Unknown	3-Nov-69	N/A	Donald B. Jones	John M. Ludlam	Cape May Court House	Typed	A record from New Jersey Superior Court and United States District Court. It is certified by John M. Ludlam in regards to Charles H. Wayne and Anne B. Wayne. A testimony or legal record referring to the Providence's right to seize the property of Matthew Camfield should he not pay his appropriate land taxes, signed by members of the council. A note is made by Deputy Secretary John Mackay certifying that the copy and the record in a library book F pages 555-556 agree aside from a small spelling mistake. The copy is examined by Solomon Davis as well, who has written and signed as such at the bottom of the document. The words "Matthew Camfield Copy 1620" are on the back of the page, and there is a small sticker with what is likely an old accession number on the bottom.	Charles Jones, John H. Ludlam, William M. Field, Dorothy M. Field, George W. Strauss, Nora G. Strauss, Charles H. Wayne, Anne B. Wayne, Donald B. Jones, Robert A. Wayne, Anna May Wayne, Jerome L. Fachtner, George A. Strauss, Shirley Strauss, Curtis T. Carson, Elizabeth E. Corson, Earl Grimes, Edward L. Nickless, Pauline P. Caterson, Laura Barsby, Joseph E. Allen, Vera M. Allen, Carlton Wettstein, Carolyn Wettstein, William M. Field, Dorothy M. Field, Thomas C. Sharp, Hannah Ann Sharp, David W. Gandy, Joseph H. Clark, Nicholas Corson, Robert L. Siemers, Margaret Siemers, James S. Caterson Jr., Matthew G. Barsby, Joseph E. Allen, Vera M. Allen, Elizabeth E. Corson.	N/A	5/1/2026	RUC
D34.3	D34.3 Matthew Camfield	Unknown	Unknown	1620, October 3 1767	N/A	John Mackay	Matthew Camfield	N/A	Handwritten	A certified copy of a right record referring to the Providence's right to seize the property of Matthew Camfield should he not pay his appropriate land taxes, signed by members of the council. A note is made by Deputy Secretary John Mackay certifying that the copy and the record in a library book F pages 555-556 agree aside from a small spelling mistake. The copy is examined by Solomon Davis as well, who has written and signed as such at the bottom of the document. The words "Matthew Camfield Copy 1620" are on the back of the page, and there is a small sticker with what is likely an old accession number on the bottom.	John Mackay, Matthew Camfield, Solomon Davis, Hamilton O. Jordan, Andrew Bowen, James Dundas, Lewis Morris, Samuelle Dennis, John Bishop	N/A	5/6/2026	KRO
D34.4	D34.4 Parmenos Corson Power Of Attorney	Reynolds Corson Massey	Sept 12 1875	June 24, 1837	N/A	Parmenos Corson	Amos Corson and Albert G Corson	Upper Township, Cape May County	handwritten	A document written, signed, and sealed by Parmenos Corson that gives power of attorney to Amos Corson and Albert G Corson	Parmenos Corson, Amos Corson, Albert G Corson, Joseph Bowler, Andrea Gandy	75.15.30	5/6/2026	KRO
D34.5	D34.5 Joseph B. Hughes 1833	Cecilia Hand Nelson	Dec 12 1979	August 29, 1833	Discharge of the body of Joseph B. Hughes - from the facts Ca. Sa. In the hands of R. Thompson Sheriff	Richard P. Thompson	New Jersey Supreme Court, Salem Banking Company, Joseph B Hughes	Cape May	Handwritten	A document written by Sheriff Richard Thompson to the NJ supreme court and Salem Banking Company confirming that Joseph B Hughes has settled his debt owed to Thomas P. Hughes, according to Thomas' attorney Daniel Elmer. There is a note at the bottom of the letter stating Richard Thompson is the attorney who signed the notice, but Daniel Elmer is the attorney representing Thomas in this suit	Joseph B Hughes, Richard P Thompson, Thomas P Hughes, Daniel Elmer	79.124.9	5/6/2026	KRO
D34.6	D34.6 Tomlin Learning Legal	Unknown	Unknown	May 25, 1824	Cape May Pleas No.6	Abijah Smith	Cape May Pleas Court	Middle Township, Cape May	Handwritten	Court accounting and judgement sheet for Cape May Pleas Court on behalf of William Learning against Benajah Tomlin and William Tomlin in Middle Township. There is a list of damages and their costs totaled on the front of the document, while the back details the damages sustained by William Learning	William Learning, Benajah Tomlin, William Tomlin, John Tommend, Abijah Smith, James Dimistoli	N/A	5/6/2026	KRO
D34.7	D34.7 Cape May Pleas 18224	Unknown	Unknown	February 1824	Cape May Pleas no. 2	Abijah Smith, James Giles	Cape May County Sheriff	Middle Township, Cape May	both	Debt collection and property seizure order directed to the Cape May County Sheriff from Pleas Court in 1824. Nathan Coner and Judith Eldredge, acting as administrators of the estate of Christian Coner (deceased), won a court judgement against Joseph Teal.	Joseph Teal, Judith Eldredge, Nathan Coner, Christian Coner, James Giles, Abijah Smith	N/A	5/6/2026	KRO
D34.8	D34.8 Cape May Pleas 1822-23	Unknown	Unknown	October 1822	Cape May Pleas no. 2	Abijah Smith, James Giles	Cape May County Sheriff	Middle Township, Cape May	both	An order to the Cape May County Sheriff from May 1824. Daniel Ludlam was convicted and owes Joseph Falkinburger $131.04 for his 'damages, costs, and charges'. The money was received in February 1825.	James Giles, Abijah Smith, Downs Edmunds, Richard Edmunds, Ludlam Hand, Nathaniel Hand	N/A	5/7/2026	RUC
D34.9	D34.9 Cape May Pleas	Unknown	Unknown	February 1825	N/A	James Giles	Cape May County Sheriff	Middle Township	Typed	An order to the Cape May County Sheriff from 1822. Jeremiah Thomas owes Joshua Hand $94.59 for his 'damages, costs, and charges'. The payment was received in October 1822.	James Giles, Daniel Ludlam, Joseph Falkinburger	N/A	5/7/2026	RUC
D34.10	D34.10 Cape May Pleas 1822	Unknown	Unknown	1822	N/A	James Giles, Abijah Smith	Cape May County Sheriff	Middle Township	Typed	An order to the Cape May County Sheriff from 1822. Jeremiah Thomas owes Joshua Hand $94.59 for his 'damages, costs, and charges'. The payment was received in October 1822.	James Giles, Abijah Smith, Jeremiah Thomas, Sarah Thomas, Joshua Garrison Hand, Charles Townsend	N/A	5/7/2026	RUC

D34.11	D34.11 Cape May Pleas 1824	Unknown	Unknown	1824	N/A	James Giles, Abijah Smith	Cape May County Sheriff	Middle Township	Typed	An order to the Cape May County Sheriff from 1824. William Tomlin was comitted and owed Nathan Corson and Judith Eldredge $860.49 for his 'damages, costs, and charges'. The payment was received in May 1824.	James Giles, Abijah Smith, Nathan Corson, Judith Eldredge, William Tomlin, Cresse Townsend	N/A	5/7/2026	RUC
D34.12	D34.12 Joshua Swain and Enos Corson	Unknown	Unknown	March 17, 1826	N/A	Joshua Swain	Spicer Hughes	Cape May	Handwritten	A legal sale occurring between Joshua Swain and Enos Corson. Enos Corson is selling property of his, a plantation wagon and 'greds', two cows, one yearling, and two bay mares. It does not clarify how much it sold for.	Joshua Swain, Enos Corson, Seth Young	N/A	5/7/2026	RUC
D34.13	D34.13 Salem Banking Company Joseph B. Hughes	Unknown	Unknown	June 20th, 1833	N/A	Richard P. Thompson	The Salem Banking Company, Joseph B. Hughes	Salem, Cape May	Handwritten	A letter from Richard P. Thompson giving notice about the case between Joseph B. Hughes and the Salem Banking Company. It is regarding Thomas P. Hughes and how the cause benefits him, since he has been adjoined to Joseph P. Hughes. "The accession number reads 79.124.9 but that does not match up our records".	Richard P. Thompson, Joseph B. Hughes, Thomas P. Hughes	79.124.9	5/7/2026	RUC
D34.14	D34.14 Circuit Court Judgement	Unknown	Unknown	March 9, 1847-April 11, 1861	Circuit Court	Unknown	Circuit Court Records	N/A	Handwritten	A document recording various cases from Circuit Court. It includes the people involved, the date, and the amount owed. It does not include how the case was judged. On the other side, it also includes common pleas with the same details. All cases involve George L. Ludlam. "The accession number reads 79.124.9 but that does not match up with our records".	John Sands, George L. Ludlam, John Nagler Jr., Josiah M. Neave & Brothers, Lewis Mulford & Co., Thomas J. Roseman, Ross Darling, William Clark, Nathan B. Moody, Rich S. Ludlam, William W. Waret, David W. Pierson, Cooper P. Knight, Dawson + Jones, Holmes + Matthews, Gross	79.124.9	5/7/2026	RUC
D34.15	D34.15 Report of Prisoners	Unknown	Unknown	1814	Report of Prisoners brought into the Port of Little Egg Harbor	John Coleman	Prisoner report	Little Egg Harbor	Handwritten	A list of prisoners that were captured and brought into Little Egg Harbor on two separate vessels. The first vessel that was captured was H. B. Hapsted's Schooner. Fifteen prisoners were on H. B. Hapsted's Schooner. The second vessel was The Fanny. Ten prisoners were caught from The Fanny. John Coleman, master of the Perry, is the one who received credit for capturing them.	Francis Little, William Abright, Henry Jones, George Howard, Gilbert James, Duncan McPherson, James Brown, Edward Butler, John Baptist, John Magee, Joseph Burton, John Shaw, John Clark, John Blay, James Mangrove, William Kingston, James Roach, Jacob Monson, Peter Cullen, James Cain, William Murphy, William Evans, Michael Delany, Stephen Denolade, James Kitting, Nicholas Stafford	N/A	10/9/2025	RUC