But have been so busy since I have been at the store (Being a new business to me & I want to work myself into it as soon as possible) that I haven't had time to write you before. No doubt you have heard that I have got to housekeeping again, have a real nice little house & feel much better contented than I did awhile ago. I don't have everything I want by a great deal, but so far have managed to get along very comfortably. Grandma I have two or three spare rooms & would be delighted if you would come up & stay with me just as long as you felt like it. What is Sam doing now I thought he was coming up to try to get something to do. I haven't heard from him since he went down home think if he had been here could have found something before this time nearly 6 hours to pass a given point such a one will probably never occur again it was too much of a good thing I think. The people are going crazy over Grant are making a perfect idol of him. How is Em & the baby getting along? My two boys are growing nicely I think Willie is rather the largest of the two & just as full of mischief as he can stick it is just as much as Carrie wants to do to manage them. We have got a little girl there now, a cousin of Carries, who helps here along a good deal. I believe Annie is coming down to spend Christmas with you & I send you buy her a little souvenir which I thought would be acceptable. Carrie joins me in wishing you a Merry Christmas & a happy New Year. Hoping to see you up here before a great while. I am as ever. Your affectionate grandson, Charlie." It seems quite hard for you to write long letter. Should you think you could write three or four sheets without any trouble beings that you have nothing to occupy your time. Would write letters if I were in your place to pass the time away. I know that I would if so situated as you was don't see how you pass the time away. If you were only here know that you could have gone went in a two horse open wagon to Green Creek. Lemuel Miller and myself were the only gentlemen along. Just imagine how embarrassing it was. Sallie Mar(?) , Sol Wear(?), Mel W. , Sam S(?) , Mr. S(?) , Lyde S, Mel H(?) . Just think of a grand time we must of had you know my (?) fate is to enjoy myself wherever I am so that it was in this case. The roads were very muddy the drove fast and they were nearly overset when they reached home. Not withstanding all that they would like to go again. Salli and myself thought of the time when we went last year. The weather is quite cool here a slight frost last night the first we have had this year so you see we haven't had much cold weather yet don't I know what it may be before winter is ever reached. We will have our share we always do. Quite a lively time on the island yesterday. Section (?) ever gentleman so has his - Haven't received Mr. Ross money yet have been at him half a dozen times, guess the mason doesn't pay me has been disappointed some way or another says it is all right but told him could he pay your tax at Cold Spring before they put a percent on it. They always do after a certain time. Think it is - at home. Tell your ma if convenient would like to know what she once did with all the money that is in my hands. With kind regards to your ma and all the friends I am as ever your lones and	Lemuel Miller, Sallie Mar(?), Mel W. , Sam S. Mr. S.
